LIKE A FLASH OF LIGHTNING WITHOUT WARNING COMES THIS SALE WITH A REASON. THE GREATEST AND MOST SENSATIONAL MERCHANDISE EVENT THE PUBLIC HAS EVER KNOWN.

A Colossal Final CLOSING OUT SALE

$15,000.00 WORTH OF HIGH GRADE MERCHANDISE TO BE PLACED ON SALE BEGINNING

Saturday, May 23

At 8:30 A. M. Sharp, Lasting Until Saturday, June 13

At prices that will shake Lawrence County, Ky., and Wayne County, W. Va., from center to circumference. The reason: our lease expires June 18. W. L. Ferguson, of this city, has rented our store to take possession June 19, 1914. We have notified Dr. T. D. Burgess that we will vacate the house on June 18, so you see this is a bonifide closing out sale. Anybody who wishes to find out that this is bonifide will refer to Dr. T. D. Burgess.

To make the story short, our stock must be closed out. It does not matter what the results may be as we have no place for the stock after June 18, and in order to dispose of such a large stock of merchandise in such a short time we are bound to cut the prices in such a way that will make the public buy. COST is not considered in this sale, as we must move. Necessity knows no law.

Can you realize, can you conceive what this means? Remember it is not any more a question of how much the stock will bring. It has now become a question of how quickly it can be disposed of. We simply must dispose of it before the expiration of our lease June 18. This is positively the most economizing opportunity ever offered to the public.

Read every page, every line, of this important announcement. Make a list of your wants and set a day apart and come to this wonderful FINAL CLOSING OUT SALE. It is not necessary to mention that we will do strictly as we advertise; we shall positively live up to each and every statement here made as usual.

It will pay merchants from the city and country to attend this sale as you can save at least 25 per cent and freight by buying your goods from us.

ATTENTION! We will not have any special leaders such as half-hour sales. EVERYTHING will be a leader with us as long as it lasts. Of course the first part of the sale you can get better selections, therefore, we advise everybody to attend this sale as early as you can.

Such an opportunity you will never see again in a life-time, as Jake is sure going away without any doubt whatever. He is going to his Hunting-ton store where he has been located since February 1st. Everybody knows that the prices of the goods will raise to the top notch as soon as Jake the Jew leaves Louisa. When you bought goods from other places cheaper than usual who was the cause of it? Jake the Jew of course. Therefore, I advise you to take advantage of this remarkable Final Closing Out Sale. I could have sold the entire stock of merchandise in a lump at a small loss but I figured out that I owe to the people who have patronized me in the past four years a debt; that is, to give them one more show to buy their Spring and Summer wearing apparel at one-half of its regular value. I certainly hate to leave Louisa, but circumstances have forced me to close out and leave.

I will stand by my promises just as much as ever, so if I ever take a notion to come back to Louisa I can face you. I want every man, woman and child to attend our sale, as I will be here to greet you with courtesy and politeness, and see that everybody goes away satisfied.

We quote only a small price list as we can't state every item for space will not permit us. Therefore, don't think we haven't got it if you don't see it advertised. When you come to the store you will find everything as is usually carried in a first class department store. ARE YOU COMING?

WARNING!

Don't confound this bonifide Closing Out Sale with so-called special sales, little fictitious signs trying to imitate us—trying to make you believe all kinds of hard things about us. This is an opportunity so extraordinary that even a comparison would be ridiculous. Don't pay any attention to knockers. Just look for the sign bearing the name Jake the Jew—that is the only genuine sale in Louisa, and the last sale.
